

By age 3 years cannot:

- Be understood by family and/or caregivers
 - Correctly produce vowels and such sounds as p, b, m, w in words
 - Repeat when not understood without becoming frustrated
-

By age 4 years cannot:

- Be understood by individuals with whom they do not communicate
 - Be understood by family and/or caregivers
 - Correctly produce t, d, k, g, f
 - Be asked to repeat without becoming sensitive
-

By age 5 years cannot:

- Be understood in all situations by most listeners
- Correctly produce most speech sounds
- Be asked to repeat without exhibiting frustration